250 Soviets Due In Cuba Monday

MIAMI, Nov. 28 (AP)—Havana Radio reported today that 250 Soviet technicians are expected to arrive in Cuba next Monday to operate machines in the sugar fields.

The Russian technicians are "Komsomols" (members of the Soviet Young Communist League) and will teach Cubans to operate 500 Soviet-made cane lifting machines.